CLARENCE
MARSH

MEMORIAL AWARD

*“Anyone can learn,
at any age, and
people just need a chance.”*

Clarence Marsh

Who Was Clarence Marsh?

Clarence (Butch) Marsh was a great man who worked very hard to promote self-advocacy and community inclusion. He was a volunteer and set positive examples for others within the community. Clarence was also the President of the South Region Self-Advocacy Network. He was an excellent leader and role model.

Clarence passed away suddenly on September 22, 2004. He will be missed immensely by his family and friends.

Who Can Be Nominated?

The nominee can be a friend and/or should be somebody you know. No self-nominations will be accepted.

The nominee does not have to have leadership training, but should have leadership skills. The nominee must be a self-advocate and have all or most of the characteristics listed:

- ✦ Good listening and communication skills
- ✦ Understands and is open to new ideas from others
- ✦ Is a good friend
- ✦ Motivates, encourages and respects others
- ✦ Responsible and makes good choices
- ✦ Confident
- ✦ Promotes community inclusion
- ✦ Sets an example for others to follow
- ✦ Trusts and shares responsibilities
- ✦ Involved with the community and promotes self-advocacy
- ✦ Stands up for what he/she believes in

Requirements of Nomination

On a separate sheet: Explain in 200 words or less why you think the person you nominated should win. (The write-up cannot be less than 50 words.)

Deadline: Hand in or mail in your nomination by March 30, 2018

The winner of the award will be announced in May at the SRSAN self-advocacy conference.
